«Lucerne Summer University: Ethics in a Global Context LSUE» under the patronage of UNESCO

On June 1-6 2023, a remarkable faculty will meet with Master students from all over the world at the University of Lucerne, Switzerland to deal with highly relevant ethical questions and challenges of today and tomorrow.

A shared global responsibility for the future

The LSUE's global dialog focuses on topics such as the ethics of human rights, gender justice, economic, financial and corporate ethics, the ethics of digitization, automation, robotization, the use of artificial intelligence and bio, medical and environmental ethics.

The integrated project workshops and colloquia are intended to promote and discuss the scientific work as well as practical projects of twenty master students. The dialog across the boundaries of academic disciplines, cultures and worldviews facilitates the joint search for solutions in a global context and leads to mutual scientific and personal enrichment.

Interdisciplinary and connected

Affiliated to the Institute of Social Ethics ISE at the Faculty of Theology at the University of Lucerne, the LSUE is headed by Prof. Dr. Peter G. Kirchschlaeger. The LSUE is the core event of the project «Building a Global Network for Sustainable Responsibility» under the patronage of UNESCO. The international Summer University is singular in its form and offers a unique platform to address moral issues and ethical challenges across scientific disciplines in a sustainable and systematic way in a global context.
